

An Independent Agent Representing Aflac

There are two Voluntary Deduction options available to you through the company Aflac through payroll deduction in SCEIS.

. Wage Type Deduction 2005: Is known as Aflac Traditional Protection to assist in coverage for the 1st 90 days of Disability-Classic Cancer Protection-Accident Advantage Protection-Critical Illness for Heart Attack, Stroke and End Stage Renal Failure-Hospital Indemnity-Whole and Juvenile Life available for you and your family.

. Wage Type Deduction 2050: is CAIC/AG Aflac Group Programs

Special Interest Programs

- Short Term Disability covers the first 90 days of disability and is a guarantee issue program. Payable in addition to your sick leave and/ or maternity leave.
- Accident Advantage Protection covers accidents 24/7 on and off of the job, available for you and your family up to the age of 26.
- Cancer Classic Coverage covers skin and/ or internal cancer. Aflac is the founder of the cancer policy, and has coverage available for family up to the age of 26. The children can be covered at no additional cost.
- Whole Life and Juvenile life Coverage a life insurance that will stay the same cost your whole life. Juvenile life available for children and grandchildren.

If you are interested in hearing more> please contact Lester Park, Manager for Aflac programs through the state deductions. He can be contacted by:

Calling 803-316-4415 (mobile), 803-929-0044 (office)

or email at lester_park@us.aflac.com.

The rates are provided as a semi-monthly deduction, and an interest sheet is attached for you to fax or email to Mr. Park and he will contact you to assist and answer any questions.

Thank you