

PUSD Educators Recognized at Adult Education Awards

Several staff members from the Department of Corrections' Palmetto Unified School District were honored at the recent statewide Adult Education Awards program sponsored by the South Carolina Department of Education held February 12, 2016 in Columbia.

Superintendent Randy Reagan recognized each winner at PUSD's recent School Leadership meeting. Dr. Pamela Thomas was selected as the South Carolina Adult and Continuing Education (SCAACE) Regional Teacher of the Year as well as SCAACE State Teacher of the Year. Dr. Thomas is currently the lead teacher at Sara Babb High School at Camille Griffin Graham CI. Dr. Thomas also oversees the educational operations at Kirkland CI. She has been with the district since 2011.

Dr. Reagan and Dr. Thomas

Based on 2015 data, Palmetto Unified School District's Adult Education program, under the direction of Fran Bouknight, was recognized for: a) Awarding more WorkKeys than any other district/program in South Carolina b) Awarding more High School Equivalencies/GEDs than any other district/program in South Carolina c) Having the highest total student achievement (aggregate total) in the state.

Ms. Bouknight and Dr. Reagan

Bazella Glover was named the Paraprofessional/Administrative Assistant of the Year. Ms. Glover is assigned to the PUSD district office in Columbia. She has been with the district and SCDC since 2011.

Ms. Glover and Dr. Reagan

CONGRATULATIONS TO ALL!